Summary

I want to change the world with programming.

Experience

culture.d
Chief Technology Officer
February 2025 - Present (1 year 2 months)
India

As the Chief Technology Officer of culture.d, I led the development of a platform designed to help college students across India discover and register for campus fests. I worked across both frontend and backend, building scalable systems, designing databases, and ensuring a smooth user experience. I focused on creating a reliable platform that could handle real user traffic while maintaining accuracy of information.

Vivada Tech
Quality Assurance and Web Development Engineer
September 2024 - November 2024 (3 months)
India

Ashoka Young Scholars Programme
Student
May 2024 - June 2024 (2 months)
Haryana, India

Enrolled in the TDCS program at the Ashoka University YSP. Here I learnt about Big Data, Computer Science, and how it can be used in our daily lives.
